A committee of three members, Mrs. Ward Hurlingame, Mrs. E. E. Ames and Mrs. T. E. Dewey, appointed by the West Side Forestry club, held a meeting Friday afternoon in the rest room of Mills store, and drew petitions, in accordance with resolutions passed by their club, asking for the revision downward for the tax now imposed on oleomargarine, looking toward the lowering of its cost and other similar commodities. A second petition which has for its object an effort to secure funds for the suppression of commercialized vice, was drawn up. An article which recently appeared in the Woman's Journal, explained that the laws against the white slave trade were being violated because there was not sufficient funds to prosecute offenders and suggested that petitions be sent to the president, the attorney general, and various congressional committees asking for an appropriation. The following petition, signed by the 30 members of the club, was drawn up: "It was resolved at a recent meeting of the West Side Forestry club of Topeka, Kan., that an appropriation of $25,000 be made by congress for the prosecution of persons engaged in the white slave traffic, and the members thereof do petition you that you do all in your power to help secure this increase in the appropriation."
